

NEW WEBINAR SERIES

Save the Date!

Creating a Life Full of Possibilities!

The Arizona Developmental Disabilities Planning Council and its partners are developing a webinar series intended for people receiving services and families interested in learning more about education, employment, and independent living opportunities now and in the future.

The focus is on ages 14 and above, but elementary & preschool families, who are ready to start planning for these important long-term goals, are also encouraged to participate. Other stakeholders are welcome.

The series will kick off in May 2024 with a webinar each month through September. More information with details and how to register will be coming soon.

The series will include webinars on:

*Person Centered Planning:
